Older person's free bus pass

Herefordshire
Summer/Autumn 2016

Free bus travel

Herefordshire Council offers some residents an older person's bus pass for free travel on local bus services.

Free bus travel with these passes is available between 9.30am and 11pm on Monday to Friday, and all day on Saturdays, Sundays and bank holidays. You can travel:

- Across Herefordshire and the rest of England
- Between Herefordshire and places in Wales, provided that each bus journey starts or finishes in Herefordshire
- Between Presteigne and Knighton in Powys

Am I eligible for a free pass?

Free bus travel is linked to the state pension age. You can get a bus pass for free travel when you reach the female state pension age (whether you're a man or a woman). This will change in the coming years to reflect the gradual change in pensionable age. You can find out whether you are eligible for a free bus pass online- visit www.gov.uk/state-pension-age

There is also a disabled person's bus pass available to Herefordshire residents with a permanent disability or a disability that is expected to last at least one year. If you are unable to travel on a bus without the assistance of another person because of a disability, you can apply for a companion pass. For more information on applying for a disabled person's bus pass visit www.herefordshire.gov.uk/buspass.

Renew your bus pass

When to renew your bus pass

You can renew your bus pass if it expires within the next 90 days or less than 180 days ago. If your pass expired longer than 180 days ago, you will need to apply for a pass as a new applicant.

By telephone

You can renew your older person's pass by calling 01432 617033 and following the automated instructions. This service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. You will need to have your existing bus pass number to hand and enter your date of birth as an eight digit number when prompted (e.g. 20 Dec 1949 would be 20121949). Your new pass will be sent within 10 working days.
